Dear Parishioners,

You might find it interesting to know that for many of the ancient Greek and Roman philosophers, democratic forms of government were not thought to be the best form of governing. This wasn't because of a lack of understanding. The Greeks are the very people who invented the word democracy, which literally means "power of the people". Their concern was what people would do with their freedom.

Their criticism of democracy was that the self-interest of both the politicians and the people would become the main driving force instead of the common good. Their other concern was that people would not take the time to educate themselves about the topics they would help to decide. These two, in their thinking, would naturally lead to a society where justice is lacking and violence is widespread. They knew well humanity's struggle with complacency and selfishness.

That is why those who established this country emphasized virtue. They too knew that democracy cannot survive without virtuous citizens! They emphasized honesty, selflessness, courage, sacrifice, commitment, and hard work. These virtues are based on moral and ethical principles that go beyond any one religion. Reason and common sense tell us of their necessity for a just & peaceful society. Previous generations turned to Christianity for the ultimate source of virtue and morality. This was because they realized, like the founders of this country, that "only religion, whatever that religion might be, could get people to rise above their narrow self-interest and become citizens who cared about others." This requires self-sacrifice and that is the difficulty of virtuous living. It becomes much easier, however, when we have learned to care for the wellbeing of others as much, or even more, than ourselves. At the most fundamental level, a just and virtuous society would never allow the innocent and vulnerable to be killed in order that others can live as they wish.

Selfishness and complacency blind us to truth and reality. Let us be on guard this Tuesday as we go to the voting booth. Abortion and legalized marijuana create more problems than they pretend to solve. They are another step in the direction that the ancients were fearful democratic rule would lead. When the rights of self blind us to caring for others, the weakest voices are the victims. As Catholics, we know that our care and concern is for all people, including the youngest group among us still in their mother's wombs. Inevitably people find themselves in difficult situations, looking for answers to difficult problems, such as a woman with an unwanted pregnancy. Such situations are heart wrenching, stirring some of our deepest emotions. Of the different responses we could have, none of them should be to end the life of the person in the womb. We need to care for these mothers, assisting them with their worries and concerns. The easiest path isn't always the right path. When tempted with abortion, we need to hear God saying the innocent and the just you shall not put to death (Exo 23:7).

Please vote NO for Issues 1 and 2 this Tuesday. Your prayers for these are most appreciated.

Sincerely,
 Fr. Miller

Prison Ministry Corner

Our very dedicated Prison Ministry team members John and Patti Kastelic were chosen by the RiCI administration as Volunteers of the Year! We had a wonderful celebration at the annual RiCI Volunteer Appreciation Banquet Oct. 26. Our Catholic Choir performed along with the men in the newly-formed Violin Class, taught by Patti. All in attendance, including the warden, deputy warden, other administrative staff, representatives from Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections, volunteers from other RiCI ministries and programs, and many of our brothers, were very touched by the singing and the music of the violinists. Congratulations to John and Patti - and God bless ALL our faithful volunteers. As we have mentioned before, the Catholic community at RiCI has a prayer service, class, practice, or fellowship event every night of the week, unlike anything in any other institution. That is due to the dedication of our team!

From St. Peter High School Principal Jon Cuttitta

"The greater danger for most of us lies not in setting our aim too high and falling short, but in setting our aim too low and achieving our mark." -Michelangelo

Michelangelo is one of the greatest artists of all time, so much so that no surname is necessary. However, as an educator, he is perhaps even more noteworthy for his commitment to lifelong learning. He sculpted some of his best-known masterpieces such as La Pietá and David before he turned 30 years old. However, he would go on to create other masterpieces both as a painter in the Sistine Chapel and as an architect in the design of St. Peter's Basilica. Despite having enormous wealth and fame, he continued to create for his entire life, working on his final sculpture just six days before his death at only three weeks short of 89 years old.

Michelangelo's commitment to growth is one that we attempt to emulate and instill in our students at St. Peter's. As I mentioned in my previous bulletin article, I have committed to the ACE Principal Academy for the next two years, a program designed to improve Catholic principal leadership across the country. Likewise, our staff participates in regular professional development. Coach Shoulders, our Dean of Students, and I are also working with teachers to implement the Skyrocket teacher coaching program, which involves observing, training, and providing feedback in three hierarchical tiers: classroom culture, content mastery, and rigor. We in turn share this message with our students. We recognize that excellence happens on purpose and regularly challenge our students to do difficult and challenging things. A couple of weeks ago one of our sophomore honors students stopped by the office to discuss how difficult her classes were and how much work she had to do each day. She pointed out how much easier school had been before she came to St. Peter's during her freshman year and how much more was expected of her. I explained that this was by design - we maximize our growth when we are challenged to the limit of our abilities. Despite her concerns, I'm very proud of the well-earned 3.9 GPA she had during the 1st quarter and I'm looking forward to great accomplishments from her going forward.

For those of you who have children, grandchildren, or other relatives attending St. Peter's, please recognize that we do ask a lot of our students. We see greatness in them and we want to see them achieve it. We believe the way to do that is to set very high expectations and then do our best to provide the necessary assistance to allow our students to reach them. We thank you for your encouragement and support of our efforts in this important mission. At St. Peter's we work tirelessly to develop the future, both of our church and our community.

In closing, I offer a final quote from Michelangelo, written on one of his manuscripts at the age of 87:

"Ancora Imparo" - "I am still learning"

Please pray for the DEFEAT of this dangerous amendment.

Issue 1 is an extreme amendment on the Ohio ballot this November that threatens the health and safety of women, the rights of parents, and the lives of preborn babies up to 9 months.

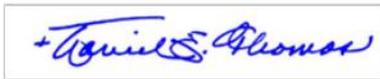

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

On Tuesday, Ohioans will vote on Issue 1. At this late hour, I come with a final word of encouragement and support that we might be able to say we've done everything possible to protect women, to protect parental rights, and to protect Ohio babies. With your help, we can defeat Issue 1. We must all go to the polls and motivate our family, friends and neighbors to do so as well. I urge you to exercise your civic duty to vote, and I urge you to fulfill your moral duty to vote NO on Issue 1. To be Catholic is to be Pro-Life, from conception to natural death. The amendment on which we are being asked to vote is nothing short of evil.

In the end, the most powerful weapon we have against evil is prayer, and the most powerful prayer we have is Holy Mass! Please join me on Monday, November 6, at 12:05 pm in St. Francis de Sales Church in downtown Toledo, as I offer Mass that hearts and minds may be converted and that Issue 1 might be defeated. I would be so grateful if a group from each parish could attend, and if you cannot attend in person, please join us in spirit and in prayer at that time.

May the Lord of life keep us faithful and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
