

SAINT PETER'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

AUGUST 27, 2017

Before there was a Sound System...

St. Peter's Alumnus and Bishop of Columbus, Bishop Michael J. Ready, preaches at the November 3, 1946, Mass for the 100th Anniversary of our Parish.

Toledo Bishop Karl Alter is seated in the sanctuary under the canopy.

Bishop Ready is preaching from a portable ambo, known as a preaching shell, which amplified and projected his voice into the church.

No electronic amplification was available. How lucky we are to have our Sound System now which makes such things unnecessary!

ALWAYS GROWING IN FAITH

The Scripture readings of this weekend, the Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time, lead beautifully into a column about adult faith formation and enrichment. How we give thanks to the Lord with all our heart and open ourselves to allow God to build up strength within us by investing time and mindfulness into learning more about our faith! When Jesus told Peter, "Upon this rock I will build my Church" and directed the apostles to go forth and spread the Good News, off they went, with Spirit-filled courage, faith, hope, and perseverance – but no Mapquest or GPS to guide them! We have the Word of God in Scripture, 2000 years of Church Tradition and teaching, and that same Holy Spirit leading us. However, we must put ourselves in positions to grow in the faith and not become stagnant or comfortable..

Perhaps one or more of these faith enrichment offerings will resonate with you – and encourage you to invite others to join you. (See detailed listing with schedule of dates, times, locations in next week's bulletin.)

Wednesdays 6:15 p.m. – What Catholics Really Believe DVD series presented by Fr. Kevin Fete and Dr. Ray Guarendi – no registration, no fee; a special invitation goes out to our Parish School of Religion parents;

Thursdays 8:00 a.m. – Women's group for faith sharing/Scripture study facilitated by Kelly Cropp – registration, fee, limited number;

Thursdays 6:30 p.m. – EPIC: Church History Ascension Press DVD series facilitated by Ron & JoEllen Stevens – registration required, fee for those wanting to purchase the study guide;

Fridays 10:00 a.m. – Repeat of What Catholics Really Believe DVD series, no registration or fee;

Day/time to be determined – Church Art book study with Bill Johnson, registration, fee, study will involve not only the beautiful artwork within our church but also the potential of visiting area churches for further enrichment;

Day/time to be determined – Celebrate with St. Monica – an evening of reflection for mothers and grandmothers of teenage and adult children;

Loaner copies of DVD and CD series on numerous topics related to faith formation and enrichment are available; consider using with your family or gathering a small group for a weekly study.

Opportunities beyond our parish:

ALPHA – excellent opportunity to ask any and every question about the Catholic faith; see details as provided in bulletin and on bulletin boards;

Catholic Divorce Survival Guide – will be offered at Galion St. Joseph Parish if enough interest is shown.

Please call or email questions or to indicate interest in any of the above. I'll look forward to answering questions about most of the courses – or connect you to those who know more about each item.

Your sister in Christ,
Lynne Lukach

Sound Volunteers Needed!! We are grateful for the generosity which allowed us to purchase and install our new sound system. We hope you will appreciate the improvements we have been able to make to the sound in Church. Now we are in need of a select few volunteers who will be willing to serve as sound system helpers when we have special liturgies or require additional set-up or adjustments. This will be an infrequent activity and no regular time commitment is required. We need individuals who are well experienced in sound, electronic amplification and related technology. If you are interested in helping with this need, please contact Bill Johnson at the Parish Center.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION—MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Sunday, September 17, 2017, at 2 p.m. St. Peter's Parish will celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Consecration and Dedication of our fourth church with a Mass celebrated by Bishop Daniel Thomas.

Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing historical facts and notes about our magnificent church and its history over the past century as seen below:

CENTENNIAL NOTES:

DID YOU KNOW... That Father Andrew Magenhan took charge of St. Peter's Parish on September 7, 1869? He immediately set about building a new brick church which stood on the site of the present St. Peter's Elementary School on the northeast corner of South Mulberry Street. The cornerstone was laid in 1870 and the church was ready for occupancy in 1871. Regrettably, that church building was completely destroyed by a fire shortly before Easter on April 9, 1889.

CENTENNIAL PICNIC!

As part of the celebration of our Church's Dedication Centennial, we will hold a picnic on September 16 from noon until 3:00 p.m. in the Shelter and surrounding areas at Spartan Fields. With the help of the Knights of Columbus, we'll have hot dogs, brats and hamburgers with a variety of other goodies. Admission and food is free -- bring a casserole or dessert to share.

We'll provide plates, utensils and drinks. To help us plan for this, please send an email to johnson.bill@myspartans.org or to dillon.angie@myspartans.org to tell us how many people you will be bringing. Call 419-524-2572, ext.2113 with questions.

DEDICATION CENTENNIAL CHURCH TOUR

On September 10 after the 11:30 Mass, a comprehensive tour of our Church will be offered, highlighting the architecture, construction and art work in the Church and the symbolism and meaning behind it all.

Your tour guide will be St. Peter's Director of Music and Liturgy, Bill Johnson. The tour will begin immediately after the 11:30 Mass in the front of the Church.

CENTERING PRAYER

The Fall session of Centering Prayer begins Monday September 11 in St. Paul's Room, 4th floor of Parish Center. We meet every Monday at 5:30 pm. We welcome you to join us! For more information contact Wanda at 330.608.2750.

BE A ROCK

Peter's history as a follower or friend of Jesus is a bit spotty. It might be natural to wonder if Jesus, in giving him the keys to the kingdom, didn't feel a bit like a parent giving a teenager the keys to the family car. But it was at the moment when God's power and presence broke through everything else to raise up Peter's great profession of faith in Christ as Messiah that Jesus chose to establish the bond between the loving, forgiving mercy of heaven and our vocation to be witnesses of that love, mercy, and forgiveness on earth.

Like any parent, Jesus no doubt foresaw the failings, the irresponsible maneuvers or impaired senses, the collisions that the church would be headed for. But, most importantly, he also saw us at that moment as God prefers to see us: capable of manifesting great faith, with a willingness to remain at the feet of Christ to understand what it truly means to be Messiah and Christ. As the letter to the Romans points out to us today, we have not known the mind or the wisdom of God, but God knows us and still chooses to manifest the reign of justice, joy, beauty, and peace through us. Let this be our vocation. Let us always strive to be solid ground on which the church of Jesus Christ can be founded and on which it can continue to be built.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Eucharistic Prayer II is a popular choice for Mass since it is both simple in structure and short. It is written with a preface, which is the section after the dialogue "The Lord be with you . . . Lift up your hearts . . . Let us give thanks," which introduces all the Eucharistic Prayers. The preface states the reason for the eucharistic assembly on that occasion, and there are dozens of them covering almost every imaginable gathering for prayer, some specific to feasts, others for Masses for the dead or for other needs. The preface attached to the second Eucharistic Prayer may be dropped in favor of a more appropriate choice, especially one of the prefaces for weekdays. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says that Eucharistic Prayer II is best suited for weekdays or "special circumstances." In practice, however, it has become the common Sunday prayer because of its brevity and its comfortable familiarity. It also includes an optional phrase for adding the name of a deceased person remembered in the Mass, and therefore is often prayed at funerals. Article 50 of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy specified that the rites are to be simplified and restored "to the vigor they had in the tradition of the Fathers." The rebirth of this ancient Roman prayer is a worthy response to this call.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: relationships live in a careful balance. If a person changes, the balance is altered requiring a shift in the relationship. In today's Gospel, Jesus announced a change and Peter resisted. Sometimes, those we count on for support may actually get in the way. Jesus told Peter: "You are an obstacle to me."
