Last year I had the privilege of teaching eighth grade theology at Saint Peter's. One day, my eighth graders and I were talking about sin and how often we sin. The common consensus was that we truly don't sin that much. I started thinking about it and thought that seemed a little untrue, so the next day I went through my life and counted the times that I failed.

Speeding on the way to work. Check. Telling my kid that Walmart wasn't open at 10:30 at night. Check. Losing my temper when the kids were shooting water guns in the house. Check. Lying again to my kids about what time it was because I wanted them to go to sleep. Check. Telling my husband I didn't overload the washer when I was very aware that I had. Check. The list goes on and on. I think I counted up a potential of about 15... and that was just in a day's time. It was a good exercise for me to actually pay attention. It turns out that a lot of my daily "routine stuff" when I sat down and thought about it were actually quite sinful acts. It gave me pause to think... do I really even consider on most days what I am doing? My second thought was "am I that bad of a person?"

My mind sped as I thought about my day. The speeding to work was because I was running late and I usually do not do that. Justifying. Telling the little white lies to the boys wasn't too bad because they didn't know any better and wouldn't know the difference. Rationalizing. Overloading the washer was a survival technique if I was ever to get ahead of the mounds of laundry. Condoning. Just like that in the blink of an eye I was able to get rid of all that sin and still maintain my status quo as a good person... or did I?

That is the thing with sin. It is very easy to justify, rationalize and condone it. But at the end of the day, at the end of our lives when it becomes our time for judgment we won't be able to do that. When we review our lives through the eyes of Christ there won't be any more opportunities for excuses, no more reasons to explain why. It will just be as it is—either a sinful act or it wasn't. It is just that easy.

I still consider myself a fairly good person but realize that there are some things I have to change. Telling so many tales to my kiddos for my own personal benefit has to be at the top of that list. Speeding... generally I do not do but it could rank up there as well. I am tracking subsequent days and I am coming up with an even more extensive list of changes that need to come down the pike. I still consider myself a pretty good person, not saint material in the least, but in this month of All Saints and All Souls day it does bid me, and all others well, to think about our lives more closely. I know I am not perfect but I have set a new goal for myself in light of the "tracking process" that I have undergone. My goal is now, as Saint Josemaria Escriva once said, "A saint is a sinner who keeps on trying."

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

Our parish Mass for Thanksgiving Day will be held at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday morning, November 23 - Thanksgiving Day. As in years past, we encourage you to bring non-perishable food items or personal care or hygiene items to be collected for HOPE Food Pantry at Catholic Charities in Mansfield. As the prayer from the Roman Missal says, it is right to give thanks to God for all that He has given us. What better way to give thanks than to share our blessings with those who are less fortunate?

ALL PARISH LECTORS should stop by the sign-in table and pick up your copy of the Lector Preparation Workbook. We begin using them for the weekend of December 2 & 3. Thank you!

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

Our brothers at Richland Correctional lift all of our parishioners in prayer over this Thanksgiving weekend. They extend their gratitude to St. Peter's for all the support you offer throughout the year; for the spiritual leadership of our priests and deacons; for our faithful prison ministry volunteers whose dedication allows the Catholic community at RiCI to gather every day of the week all year long; for those of you who regularly donate plastic bags and yarn (and cookies for special occasions!); for those who pray daily for all who are incarcerated; and for those of you who took the leap of faith this year and came for a first visit.

APOLLO'S FIRE: CHRISTMAS ON SUGARLOAF MOUNTAIN

You are cordially invited to attend the next program in the St. Peter's Music Series: Christmas on Sugar Loaf Mountain: An Irish-Appalachian Celebration, with Apollo's Fire, as they return to St. Peter's to present this world premiere performance. The performance will be Wednesday, November 29 at 7:00 pm in the Church. Under the direction of Jeanette Sorrell, and featuring Soprano Amanda Powell and Tenor Ross Hauck, the Apollo's Singers will be accompanied by strings, lute, banjo and hammered dulcimer in this tribute to the roots of Appalachian music for the holidays. Suggested donation is $10 per person. No one will be turned away because of an inability to donate.

Please make plans to attend this once-in-a-lifetime event. Purchase pre-sale tickets online at mansfieldstpeters.org or call 419.524.2572, ext. 2113 for more information.

SUPPORT OUR PRIESTS' RETIREMENT

Our priests have made a gift of their lives in service to the Church, and we are grateful for their many years of priestly ministry. In the United States, half of all the U.S. diocesan priests are expected to retire by 2019.

Please express your appreciation for those who have faithfully served in the Diocese of Toledo by making a gift to Perpetuate the Gift Appeal. Once a priest retires, he is responsible for his own personal expenses such as housing, clothing, and food. Your gift benefits our diocesan priests, retired diocesan priests, and your parish. The Perpetuate the Gift appeal also helps retiring priests with the cost of healthcare by providing a Medicare supplement. All funds contributed between October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2017, help reduce the amount the parish contributes to the fund. A gift of cash or check can be sent to Perpetuate the Gift, PO Box 954, Toledo, OH, 43697 or placed in the parish collection. A gift may also be made online at www.toledodiocese.org.

SHARING OUR GIFTS

Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week's scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone.

In the Gospel parable a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with those talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Earlier this autumn, we looked at how our Eucharistic Prayers have been enriched by the approval of several new prayers to augment the old Roman Canon. For us, there are the four standard prayers, three for Masses with Children, and the most recent addition, the former Swiss Eucharistic Prayer with four alternative forms (now known as the Eucharistic Prayer for Masses for Various Needs and Occasions).

We also have two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation. The source for these two prayers is the request by many bishops for a special prayer for the "Holy Year" of 1975. Originally, the committee in charge was commissioned to write a single prayer, but the theme proved so rich that it gave rise to two. The first is based on and develops biblical texts on reconciliation. The second starts with the experience of living in today's fractured world, and how the Spirit calls us to reconciliation and peace. Not everyone was happy with all this creativity, saying that if too many were published, it would be difficult for the Vatican to control further requests. Everyone thought the pope would put strict limits on the prayers, but in the end he said he was willing to open doors that had long been closed. Although he approved them for a period of only three years, they were never formally removed from the Sacramentary and have been incorporated into the new Roman Missal.
