"Treat people as if they were what they ought to be and you help them become what they are capable of becoming." -- Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

When I tell people that I am the principal of a junior high/high school, I usually get the same reaction: "Why would you want to do that?" Although that's a good question, the answer is pretty simple.

Working with teenagers on a daily basis can be a daunting task; however, it is one of the most rewarding journeys I have taken in my life. Yes, teenagers can be moody and snarky, but they are also passionate, full of energy, and ready to learn. We, as adults, have to remember that sometimes they aren't going to 'look' eager to learn, but trust me--they absorb everything going on around them. It's so important for us to build a relationship of trust with our young people. I consistently assure students here that we love them as if they were our own children. At first, the students don't quite believe it, but over time, they experience our true compassion for them.

Although it's a cliché to say educators change the world, we truly have the power to change lives every day. What a gift, and what a responsibility! Even though I grew up in a tumultuous home, school was my safe place. I felt loved and appreciated there. My teachers were not afraid to show me a positive path to follow, but, more importantly, they showed me what my future could look like. Our students have the potential to make a difference in the world, and I am confident that St. Peter's is just the vehicle to help them accomplish the determination and desire to do so.

With the second quarter of the school year just beginning, it has been the perfect time to reflect on the growth our students have made thus far, and let me assure you--it's been amazing already! Students have adjusted to the changes we've made this year, and, dare I say, they've actually embraced the future here and beyond! This quarter, I have witnessed excitement in so many classrooms; students have come to me to express their satisfaction with being challenged and meeting expectations at the school. You can probably tell that I'm so proud of our students. They truly are amazing in so many ways.

If I can be bold enough to speak on behalf of my colleagues, including the teachers and staff of St. Peter's elementary and junior high/high school, we are blessed--truly blessed-- to be able to work at St. Peter's Schools. Personally, knowing I can impact the way a student develops love, respect, and appreciation is the exact reason I am a principal at St. Peter's High School/Junior High School!

Tammy Haus, Principal

St. Peter's High School/Junior High

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

Sadly, Ohio continues the long stream of executions. The execution of Alva Campbell on Nov 15 appears certain. All are welcome to join us for the Candlelight Vigil Tuesday, Nov. 14, from 7 to 8 pm across from the ManCl entrance sign on State Route 13. Park in the business lots on the west side of the highway. This is an hour of silent prayer. We pray for the condemned, his victims, their loved ones, all who participate in the execution, and for an end to the death penalty.

ADULT FAITH OPPORTUNITIES

Thank you to all who are participating in our weekly adult faith opportunities. It's never too late to come and see! On Thursdays at 6:30 pm we have the series EPIC: A Journey through Church History. On Wednesdays at 6:30 pm and repeated Fridays at 10 am we have the What Catholics Really Believe series presented by Fr. Kevin Fete and Dr. Ray Guarendi. Reminder: The Wednesday night class only is cancelled this week due to the Solemnity of All Saints with Mass at 7 pm.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS NEEDED

Our pool for substitute teachers for the elementary and high school/junior high has greatly diminished in the past two years. We are in need of qualified subs.

You must have a 4 year bachelor's degree in order to substitute teach. If you are interested, you need to apply to the State of Ohio Department of Education for a 1-year short term Substitute General Education License. In order to apply for this, you will need to submit transcripts to the site. The Diocese of Toledo requires that you have current BCI/FBI background checks done and that you have completed Virtus Protecting God's Children training. We have directions on file here for what the Toledo Diocese requires and the contact person would be Vickie Fitts at vfitts@toledodiocese.org.

If you are wanting to substitute in other school districts along with ours, you will need to follow the Mid Ohio Education Service Center requirements. The contact number for MOESC is 419.774.5520.

THANK YOU

A special thank you to Bill & Lori Danuloff for making beautiful crosses for each of our Confirmation students this year. It was a wonderful keepsake to remind them of their reception of the sacrament. Also thank you to all parents & sponsors who have walked with their young person on their journey, along with members of our Confirmation teaching team & the Sacramental Team. Without their wonderful support through the use of their time & talents such a great preparation program would not be possible.

NEW SOUND SYSTEM

With the new sound system installation complete, we thought you might enjoy these photos. Many years ago the preaching shell used for homilies was rolled out on casters to the center of the communion gate and during non-use was moved to the side in front of either St. Mary's or St. Joseph's altars. In more recent years, the main speaker was above the sanctuary and included speakers on the marble pillars throughout the church. Thank you to all who have contributed to the Capital Campaign, Preserving Our Past, Securing Our Future, which has provided for this new sound system.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK NOVEMBER 5-11, 2017

The Catholic Church in the United States celebrates National Vocation Awareness Week November 5-11, 2017. The purpose of this week is to pray that all young people will be open to God's plan in their lives.

The celebration of National Vocations Awareness Week is a good reminder to continue to pray for an increase in vocations to the ordained ministry and consecrated life in the Diocese of Toledo. Jesus said: "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest" (Luke 10:2). We offer prayers this week that God will call many young people in our parishes to labor with the Lord in serving the Church.

While young people face many grave challenges in responding to God's call, there are some signs of hope for the future of the Church in the United States. For example, in the past ten years, there has been a steady increase in the number of seminarians studying for the priesthood in the United States.

Any young man in the Diocese of Toledo who is considering a call to the priesthood can contact their parish priest or Father Philip Smith for guidance and support. Father Smith is the Director of the Office for Diocesan Priestly Vocations and can be reached at: psmith@toledodiocese.org or 419.244.6711. The Office for Diocesan Priestly Vocations offers many events throughout the year to help men learn more about the priesthood.

ELECTION DAY: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2017

It is the policy of the Diocese of Toledo that the only election materials to be shared through the parishes and diocesan institutions are those that come directly from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Ohio Catholic Conference or our own diocesan Chancery. Information left in our buildings or on windshields that is not from the above mentioned sources is not endorsed by the Diocese of Toledo, its parishes or institutions, and will be removed and discarded.

BALANCE

Today's scriptures emphasize the fundamental link between love of God and love of our neighbors, especially those who are most in need. Love of God should compel us to love the people whom God cherishes. Conversely, work for justice and charity for those in need should be rooted in our love of God.

That connection and balance, however, isn't always easy to maintain in our lives. Even in religious orders we find that some Christians are more oriented toward contemplation and prayer, while others are more active in reaching out to those who are oppressed. Today Jesus reminds us of the necessity for both in the life of faith.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This week we have in All Souls' Day a commemoration that is linked to the Halloween customs. The big-spending sugar shock holiday is a long way removed from Thursday's grateful remembrance of the souls who are hidden from our sight, but alive to Christ. Old pagan superstitions might find us holding our breath when going by the graveyard, whereas others might actually go to the cemetery to tend the family graves, to share good food, and remember dear ones. Nowhere does a culture embrace this day as fully as in Mexico. The "Day of the Dead" is a national holiday that unfolds over three full days.

For three thousand years, the indigenous people of Mexico have been mocking death in an annual festival, and the invading Spaniards were shocked at the spectacle. To the Aztecs, life was a dream, and death was the entry into full life. Skulls were thus a symbol of joy and release from life's sorrows. The missionaries found all this a bit creepy, but they moved the three-day feast from August to synchronize it with the Christian calendar. So today, graves are decorated, altars are built in the home to honor the family dead, children feast on candy skulls, and people dress up in elaborate skeleton outfits. The devout spend hours in the cemetery, and there is a lively sense of the communion of saints, the living and the dead.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: In today's gospel Jesus describes the vocation of parents: "The greatest among you will be your servant." Children take our blood, genes, strength, name, patience and resources. A parent's servitude begins at the moment of conception. The Lord is present in each of our acts of selfless service.
