MARCH 18, 2018

"I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name."

Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it and will glorify it again."

"Could you not watch one hour with me?"

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Jesus Christ:

In one short week, we will begin our recollection and celebration of the passion, death and resurrection of our Savior and brother, the Lord Jesus. Each year we are invited to take part in remembering and joining in his suffering and death. The reason this is important is that we hold very dearly the idea that our remembrance and reenacting makes those events real and makes us not only witnesses but participants in the suffering, death and resurrection of the Lord.

For us who remember and participate in the rites of Holy Week, there is the opportunity to unite ourselves with Jesus as he undergoes his Passion. For many of us, this is a familiar idea. Who among us has sat by the bed of a loved one as they journey from this life to the next? Who among us has accompanied loved ones through illness and suffering? Who among us has watched over a sick child, praying for their recovery? We do this because we love them. We do this because they are an important part of our lives.

If this is true...that those we love are so important in our lives, then how much more so for Jesus? If we can accompany our loved ones on journeys through suffering and pain, even unto death, then how much more so for Jesus? How much more for the one who gave up his life, his godhead, his immortality, so that he could rescue us from sin and death? If we love, Scripture tells us that it is because he first loved us. And if he loved us, how can we not love him in return?

Love in this case is not about how we feel. Love is about what we decide to do. What will we decide to do for the dying and rising Lord?

Holy Week offers us the opportunity to make real our participation and witness and sharing in the Passion of the Lord. Why not accompany him by participating in the liturgies and rites of Holy Week?

The bulletin contains a complete schedule of the events to come, but of special note is the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday night at 7:00 p.m. We recall and participate in the Institution of the Holy Eucharist and, afterward, we are given the opportunity to keep watch with the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament as we recall

At Richland Correctional we have been blessed to gather for Stations of the Cross seven times this Lent. We have used seven different formats, all powerful and prayerful. Here is an example from "The Way of the Cross for Prisoners" for Station XI - Jesus is Nailed to the Cross: Lord, I cannot even begin to imagine the pain you endured. I, too, have inflicted pain on others, those who were innocent as you were. Give me a new heart that seeks to give love, not pain. When I think of my sins,

SAVED BY GOD'S LOVE

Because the people broke the old covenant, God promised a new covenant, not in the blood of oxen and other animals, but in the blood of the Son, Jesus Christ. This new covenant, foreseen from afar by Jeremiah and the prophets, was not to be engraved on stone, or written on paper, but carved on our hearts, so that we might know God intimately. Not by keeping many laws are we to be saved, but by the love of God, living and real in our hearts through the sacrifice of Christ.

Our Eucharist is the pledge of that indwelling of Christ, and of our response of praise and thanksgiving to God for the mercy, love, and kindness shown to us in forgiving our sins and cleansing our hearts of everything evil. God issues this invitation to intimacy by offering us the chance to have our sufferings transformed into the perfect love of the Savior, who first loved us.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the next two weeks, as we hear of the interior anguish of Jesus, we are led to the Garden of Gethsemane, the scene of a night of suffering, failure, and loss. In Hebrew, the word means "olive press," and it was an olive grove, although only a few trees remain. Olives can't be eaten off the trees, they need to be cured—knocked from the trees at harvest time, scooped into a stone basin, and cracked open by a heavy millstone. The crushing stone weight was itself called a "gethsemane," and once it was lowered onto the olives, oil from the fruit and the inner stone would drip into a groove and flow into jars. The night before his death, Jesus experienced such anguish that scripture says his own blood perspired from him, an image no one who understands olive oil production could miss.

Today, the Mount of Olives is within the city of Jerusalem and the site of the Church of All Nations, also known as the Basilica of the Agony. It was built in 1924, funded by Catholics in twelve different countries. An open-air altar on the grounds is used by Anglicans on Holy Thursday every year. Nearby is the Russian Church of Mary Magdalene, built by the czar in 1888, its magnificent golden domes a distinctive landmark. There is also another tiny Catholic Church, called

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Relationships come with a price tag. We must be willing to entrust ourselves to one another, to let go of our autonomy and die to our independence. It is in dying to our independence that we find interdependence with others.
