I have recently been working with a young person and it has been a real eye opener for me. This particular young person had some reservations about receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation which is not that unusual. Although most just join the classes and get it done, there are always a few who think about it a little bit more and have more questions, generally pertaining to faith itself, that they want concrete answers to before they "take the plunge" into Confirmation.

This particular young person took his reservations to a different level. His reservation was that he didn't feel God and that his life was too busy to go looking for him, much less do all the things that Confirmation preparation required.

I am not deaf to the concept that our young people for the most part are extremely busy these days between school, sports, friends, extracurricular and familial commitments. Sometimes it makes my head spin when they tell me about their schedules and their stress levels, their lack of sleep and their want for a break. It is not just mere excuses but their reality and it makes me ponder on some level when twelve or fourteen turned into what seems like a full-time job.

But I have never had a young person tell me that they were just too busy for God.

While working with this young person, I ran across this scripture passage from the Book of Exodus: "The Lord will fight for you; you have only to keep still."

It gave me pause to think. Our lives are so inundated with activities that we rarely have time to be still. I recently was at a retreat with 7th and 8th graders where they were brought together for a Reconciliation service and one thing that became quite apparent is that they had no idea how to just remain "silent" and "still". It was almost like they were searching for anything, ANYTHING, to break that silence because they couldn't handle the concept of just resting in God's presence (which most adults just took as disruptive and disrespectful behavior).

But one thing is for certain- God will fight for each of us, even the busiest of all of us, if we remain still. God will search for and find us. It is up to each of us to remain "still" just for mere moments to be able to see that he is there. And in today's society that is constantly crammed with noise and activity this is not always the easiest thing to do, but it can be done and we can feel that God is there with us.

My prayers continually go out to all the young people who are on the cusp of their life and of their faith, that they learn that the two are in fact intertwined. I pray for them to see the value in "being still" and letting God fight for them.

Director of Religious Education & Youth Minister

175TH ANNIVERSARY NOTES

In the previous column we read about the first few years of the pastorate of our fifth resident Pastor, Father Ferdinand Schreiber. By the time of his arrival in Mansfield, Father Schreiber was already an accomplished Pastor, having served at St. Mary's Parish in Antwerp in Paulding County, together with the surrounding mission parishes in the rest of Paulding County as well as Defiance County. During his time there he built churches in the villages of Latty and Cecil. Today neither village has more than 200 people and those early parishes are gone.

After his service in Antwerp, Father Schreiber was sent to the Shelby Settlement (also called Bethlehem) in 1890 to serve as Pastor of Sacred Heart Parish there. The current Gothic style church was built by Father Schreiber between May 1891 and September 1895, and it remains one of the more architecturally notable churches in the Diocese of Toledo, suddenly arising as it does in the midst of the corn fields of northwestern Richland County. Father Schreiber's labors at the Settlement are commemorated on a plaque in the vestibule of the church.

Father Schreiber's arrival in Mansfield in 1898 was not without difficulties, but he was a shrewd and gifted Pastor. The mounting parish debt retired within five years, he immediately turned his attentions to the larger concerns of the parish and the community. Twelve years before he came to Mansfield, construction began on the Ohio State Reformatory on Olivesburg Road north of the city. It was the largest prison in the State of Ohio and one of the largest prisons in the country.

Father Schreiber's concern for the inmates of the Reformatory was genuine and compassionate. He began visiting there regularly to bring the Sacraments and the consolation of Faith to the inmates. The Parish sacramental records are full of notations about inmates at the Reformatory. A brief biography of Father Schreiber, written for the 50th anniversary of his ordination, described his ministry this way: "This biography would not be complete without briefly mentioning Father Schreiber's zealous efforts in behalf of the Catholic inmates of the Mansfield State Reformatory. Many sacrifices of time and comfort were made throughout the years to revive the faith of these youthful violators of the law. Many grieving parents came to him for assistance and advice concerning their repentant sons. Ministering to these unfortunates was, indeed, a noble work, being replete with discouragements and consolations."

120 years later, the Prisons Ministry here at St. Peter's is alive and full of energy. Today our staff and volunteers work tirelessly to provide the same spiritual care for inmates at Richland Correctional and Mansfield Correctional institutions. Father Schreiber would be doubtless gratified by the continuing care provided to those inmates. More to come next week!

150TH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY NOTES

By 1870 and with a growing parish, Father Magenhan purchased three lots on the northwest corner of Mulberry and First Streets (where the parish parking lot is today). On this land stood the First Ward public school building of yellow brick, two stories providing four classrooms. To accommodate the growing student population, this building became the new (and second) St. Peter's School. (That we know of, there is no photo available of this building. Based on descriptions of buildings of that time and a topical blueprint of the rooftop, SPHS alum, Jonathan Gallaway, completed this sketch.)

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

"Advice" books abound on marriage and parenting. Jesus tells us in today's Gospel the great secret: satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about "giving," ourselves. If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right.
