"The secret of happiness is to live moment by moment and to thank God for what He is sending us every day in His goodness." -St. Gianna Beretta Molla

It's hard to believe that it is already the end of November. The junior high-high school students are well into their second quarter classes. To complement the academic curriculum, each year our high school students get a chance to participate in a retreat with their classmates. The freshmen, sophomores, and juniors get to take part in one-day retreats which focus on class bonding and spiritual growth.

When I taught English at St. Peter's a few years ago, I was able to be a part of the junior retreats. To be honest, I had no idea of what to expect. However, my experiences with the junior retreat were amazing. Even though, it was great watching students learn to trust and bond with their classmates, it was even better witnessing them connect, and sometimes reconnect, with God.

During the students' senior year, they participate in a four day, three night Kairos retreat. Kairos means "God's time" and the students live these retreat days reflecting on God and their relationship with God. For the past two years, I have been lucky enough to share this Kairos experience with our students. In fact, I was able to share my thoughts and life experiences about how we all face "Obstacles to God's Friendship" with the students. And this is where "Thanksgiving" comes in.

All of us, no matter how young or old, have experienced obstacles to God's friendship. However, I believe that it all comes down to faith and thankfulness. Although it can be frustrating and disappointing to undergo tough times in life, we all must have faith that God has not left our side. More importantly, all of the obstacles that we face are opportunities to grow closer to Him. Sometimes we forget to be thankful, but being thankful is a great way to acknowledge our desire to live like Jesus.

Being thankful for the individual journey God is guiding us on, including the easy and tough times, is an awesome way to recognize God's love in everything. I must admit that I am humbled to be able to share my experiences with our students. They are truly amazing young adults. Every time I hope to impact them in some way, they amaze me even more!

My prayers for this Thanksgiving are that we all remember to be thankful--truly thankful-- for the journey that God is taking us on. I want to thank all of you for supporting our school. We are truly blessed! Happy Thanksgiving!

Tammy L. Haus
High School/Junior High Principal

NOTE TO DIRECT DEBIT USERS

In the past month, we've received reports that some banks are showing our debit & credit transactions as coming from the name of our merchant processor: BBMS or Blackbaud Merchant Services. Be assured if you see these on your statements that the transaction is legitimate and it is your weekly or monthly gift to St. Peter's. It's just the way some banks are displaying the data, and we have no way to control it. If you have any questions, please contact Jason Crundwell at 419.524.2572 ext. 2125.

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

Thank you again to ALL who contributed cookies to our recent RiCI Retreat. Your support is greatly appreciated, the cookies were delicious, and our RiCI brothers lift you in prayer. As mentioned in an earlier bulletin, two of our released brothers were invited to this Retreat to share their stories in light of the retreat theme "Be a Man - on the Inside and Outside." They emphasized the importance of surrendering to God; dropping all masks and false pride; taking advantage of all religious, educational, recovery, and vocational programs to change "corrupted, distorted thinking" into wholeness. They stressed that we cannot serve two masters: "If we want to know who we are we need to know who God is....We're beloved children of God....We belong to whomever we obey."

150TH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY NOTES

In 1889, a fire destroyed the second St. Peter's church. A red-brick combination church/school building was constructed with the cornerstone laid in September.

That church/school combination building stood on what is now the parish parking lot. The church was on the second floor. The school was on the main floor with four large classrooms. That building was used as the school until the current elementary school and, later, the current high school building were constructed.

The old (and second) yellow-brick school building was torn down.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FRIDAY DINNERS

Please RSVP at 419.529.5532 or sign up at the club for the November 30th dinner—Chicken Parmesan.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, also known as the Feast of Christ the King, was instituted universally in 1925 by Pope Pius XI. Originally celebrated on the last Sunday in October, the feast was moved to the 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time (the final Sunday of the liturgical year) in the renewal of the Sacred Liturgy brought about by the Second Vatican Council. The move was made to point to the identity of Jesus as the beginning and the end, the Alpha and the Omega of all things, including time itself. Just as we celebrate His coming at the beginning of the Church year, so we also see Jesus as the aim and destination of all our lives at the end of the year.

Many saints and martyrs have drawn courage and inspiration from belief in Christ as Lord and King of all. When the Church in Mexico was being attacked and persecuted by the anti-clerical, anti-ecclesiastical government of Mexico in the 1920's, the Cristero Rebellion between 1926 and 1929 saw the martyrdom of many priests, religious, and faithful lay people. Many took up the cry, "Viva Cristo Rey!" (Long live Christ the King!) Blessed Miguel Pro, a Mexican Jesuit priest martyred by firing squad along with many companions in November of 1927, was heard to exclaim, "Viva Cristo Rey!" loudly as the rifles were fired at him. In fact, we celebrated his feast day yesterday, November 23. What an amazing confession of faith to surrender one's life while proclaiming the lordship of Jesus Christ!

To celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, Exposition and Adoration of the Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament will take place from the end of the 11:30 Mass today, November 24, and will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction at 5:00 p.m. Please make plans to spend some time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament this afternoon as we observe the lordship of Jesus Christ over all creation. There is no better way to acknowledge Him than to unite ourselves to Him in prayer. Adoration and Benediction help us to realize that He is the "...source and the summit of our lives." Please plan to spend half an hour or an hour in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament this weekend as we remember the one who is Lord of all creation.
