Hello everyone!

I am willing to guess that if I asked everyone who your favorite teacher was in high school, we all would be able to think of that person rather quickly, and we all would have different reasons for our choices. For me, that teacher was my Spanish teacher. Not only was she an all-around excellent teacher, but she knew well that repetition serves as a time-tested and very effective pedagogical tool. On every test, we would have to show that we knew the most basic material as well as the material covered in the most recent chapter.

Perhaps that is just how my mind works, but I am willing to guess that repetition is a useful tool for most people when it comes to learning. This applies to the faith as well. Sometimes it is helpful for us to hear aspects of our faith that we likely have already learned, even if it means having a "back to basics" moment before moving forward to reflect on the deeper realities of our faith and how to live them out concretely.

I propose, then, that one such moment be a chance to reflect on what could be considered the most basic aspect of our faith: the six precepts of the Church. The precepts are the duties that are expected of every Catholic and serve as the minimum criteria for being active/practicing. They are:

To attend Mass on all Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation

To confess one's sins at least once per year

To receive the Eucharist at least once per year during the Easter season

To observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church

To help provide for the material needs of the Church

To obey the Church's laws on marriage

While much could be said about all of these, we will simply note just a few things. First, with regard to the obligation to go to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, please know that if illness, physical inability, absence of transportation, or severe weather prevent you from being able to come to Mass, then you are certainly excused from the Sunday obligation for that particular Sunday.

Second, there are a variety of ways to provide for the material needs of the Church. Often, this is done through monetary donations to the parish, the diocese, religious orders, missions, etc. However, one can also provide for the material needs of the Church by volunteering one's time and/or resources and by a variety of other in-kind donations. The Church certainly understands that everyone's life situation is different, and that therefore everyone is not able to give in the same ways or the same amounts. Know that we are certainly grateful to those who already do this, and we encourage everyone to consider how they might be able to provide, even in seemingly small ways, for the Church's needs.

Lastly, the sixth precept covers a lot of ground. This includes matters of faith and morals such as the Church's teaching on contraception, the requirement of an annulment before remarriage, raising one's children Catholic, and more. If you have any questions on these or similar topics, please contact the parish office and I or Fr. Hite would be happy to answer them.

Blessings to you all!

Fr. Austin

PLEASE REMEMBER YOUR PARISH . . .

... in your estate planning or will. It is easy to do. Either contact your financial planner or attorney – OR – contact our parish Development Office. We are happy to assist you! Your gift can be either "restricted," meaning to be used for a particular purpose and that purpose only, OR "unrestricted," which means it can be invested and used to support our day to day expenses in the parish. Thank you for your prayerful consideration!

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

For twenty years now, since the death penalty was reinstated in Ohio and executions were resumed, we have held a Silent Prayer Vigil the evening before EVERY scheduled execution; 56 Ohio death row inmates have been executed since 1999. We've held more than 56 vigils because some scheduled executions were delayed or cancelled following our prayer time. Now we face several scheduled executions in our state this year. Thus far, as of this printing, Governor DeWine has issued a reprieve and has postponed the February execution of Warren Keith Henness. Please continue praying and working for an end to the death penalty.

INTER CHURCH COUNCIL

St. Peter's Catholic Church participates in the Inter Church Council of Mansfield. The ICC is a group of lay persons and pastors from the "downtown" churches of Mansfield seeking to provide support for each other and the various ministries that outreach into our communities.

Currently only one lay member from our parish—Ron Stevens—serves as a representative on the Council. We thank Patsy Saul for his many years of faithful service to ICC. We are seeking the involvement of more representatives from St. Peter's. Meetings are held the 2nd Tuesday of each month from 10 to 11 am at various member locations. This is an ideal opportunity to learn more about our local churches and to actively participate in ecumenical efforts in our area. Watch the bulletin for upcoming ICC events, including the "March for Prayer" with a prayer service to be held in a variety of Mansfield churches each evening in March. Here at St. Peter's we will host this event Monday, March 4. If you are interested in learning more about ICC or perhaps would consider serving with Ron Stevens as our parish representatives, please call the Parish office—419.524.2572 and leave your name and number.

OFFICIAL POLICY ANNOUNCEMENT

Whenever a county/city within the Diocese of Toledo is placed under a Level 3 Snow Emergency, during which all roadways are closed to non-emergency personnel, the Catholic Churches within that geographic region will cancel the scheduled Saturday Vigil, Sunday, or Holy Day Masses. Roman Catholics in that region, therefore, are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass. If Masses are cancelled, Catholics are encouraged to participate in Holy Mass via television, radio, or internet, making a spiritual Communion. When Mass is cancelled, all other diocesan, parish, or school events in the geographic region are also cancelled. When school is cancelled, all Parish activities are cancelled as well.

AN ONGOING MISSION

In his hometown synagogue, Jesus' neighbors are amazed by his words. Nevertheless, they remind each other, "Is this not Joseph's son?"

Surely the people know who he is. The carpenter's son. The young man who had learned in this very synagogue. The boy down the street.

Conflict arises as Jesus begins to define himself in a new way. When he compares himself to the ancient prophets Elijah and Elisha the tensions grow. The tensions multiply when Jesus begins to tell of a new mission for God's people: the good news of the scriptures is intended for all.

In his famous passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us of the eternal nature of love. Love does not come to an end. In today's readings, we are reminded that, like love, Jesus' mission cannot be contained. Jesus slips through the crowd of persecutors and moves on to new challenges. We are called to this same perseverance in the name of love.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The song of the angels, "Holy, Holy, Holy," resounds from our lips at every Mass. There was a widespread belief in the first religions of the world that God stirred creation into being by a word, a song, a musical note. Music and a sense of God's presence have always been inseparable. In the liturgy, your voice is invited into this song as the priest names the reasons for our praise. "Heaven and earth are full of your glory," and we are not passive onlookers, but participants in this glory. Catholic prayer no longer assigns this angelic hymn to a choir, but gives it to you to sing. Even if your voice is thought to be suitable only for a well insulated shower stall, you are called into this song.

We are born to sing—just listen to a baby testing the full range of newly discovered vocal abilities. Soon we get shushed and hushed into quiet, and given lots of messages that our voices are unwanted, and that we need to raise our hands in order to be heard. All of that is overturned in liturgy, the place where God waits to hear us come alive in the song of all creation. In heaven, everyone's in the choir; why not start practicing now?
