The Gospel reading for this coming Sunday is a fairly famous one. It is where Jesus gives the command to Peter and Andrew, "come follow me" and that is precisely what they did. They didn't think twice about it, it says they "left their nets at once" and followed him. It was just that simple, Jesus was there, he said come and they did.

I often think about this reading and wonder what would happen if this scene played out today.

Jesus says come follow me. The people say, "Let me do a Facebook recommendation first to see if others would make the same choice." Follow me, says Christ. We say, "Give me a second to finish this text first". Jesus states, "follow me". We respond, "I am not going anywhere with you until I at least do a quick Google search on your name to see who you really are."

Very few would "leave their nets at once" and go, even if they knew they were following the one who could save them. That is not the right answer and Jesus makes that abundantly clear in the Book of Matthew when he tells a would be follower that if he wants to be a disciple, he shouldn't even bury his father first, he should just come.

We live in a world where it is so very hard to follow Jesus, and without really good reason. I had the opportunity to speak to a mother not that long ago who was upset about the world that her child was living in, saying that it was a much tougher world out there today for kids to grow up in, and the choices are much harder to make.

I have to agree and disagree with her. It is a much busier, much more complicated world, but the choices are not harder. Stealing is still stealing, killing is still killing and bearing false witness couldn't be viewed as any other way. The "top ten" sins are still the top ten, and most situations, when boiled down, come back to them. There is no "harder world" because the truth is still the same.

We make the world harder because we choose to. When Jesus says to follow him, we can find many more reasons not to. We make things complicated by explaining them away, instead of looking for the one truth that is there. We don't follow right away, because we think we will be missing out on something if we do.

Following Christ comes down to remembering to follow him always, not just when it is convenient or popular. Following Christ means making a conscience decision to lead a Christ centered life. Following Christ means decisions we make should always point to him. Even though society has changed, the rules have not. Following Christ means to know, love and serve him.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED

Volunteers are needed to be a part of one of the teams who will do light cleaning in the church once a month. We hope to have three or four teams. We would also need help twice a year with cleaning before Easter and Christmas. If you would like to help call Angie Dillon 419.524.2572, x3108 or email Dillon.angie@myspartans.org. People of all ages are welcome. This is a great service opportunity for our young people.

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

While our parish is blessed to provide Catholic services and ministry to our brothers in the two local state institutions, ManCI and RiCI, "prison ministry" can involve so much more. Perhaps in the new year you would like to explore opportunities in other prison ministry-related areas, such as Mentoring, Re-entry, Advocacy, Community and Family Support, and Restorative Justice. Please prayerfully consider and call Lynne at the Parish Center to discuss—419.524.2572.

ANNUAL ALL SOULS MASS

At our annual All Soul's Mass on Sunday November 3 we remembered the lives of our loved ones of many people in our parish. The Candles and Crosses with your loved ones' name are available for pick up in the Parish Center.

SPECIAL THANK YOU

I would like to thank Bill Johnson and the Traditional Choir, the Bereavement Team, especially Sheryl Weber who acted as coordinator, the Eucharistic Ministers, the lectors the Knights of Columbus who were the ushers, Carol Sgambellone and the funeral lunch folks who provided the food and coordinated the reception, John Thrasher and Jon Ralph for making all the wooden crosses, Angie Dillon who labeled the candles, Fran Leitenberger who is the keeper of our All Soul's Book and Scroll, and especially all those who attended the Mass to pray together and support one another.

GIVING TREE

Preparations have begun with efforts to organize the "Giving Tree" this year through efforts of our St. Vincent de Paul ministry and its volunteers and partners.

The tree will be up in our Church filled with gift requests on the weekend of NOVEMBER 30—DECEMBER 1, 2019.

Once again, our Parish is partnering with Catholic Charities and Salvation Army to assist community family's needs as well as St. Peter school families, parishioners and the Angel Tree Program (children of prison inmates). We want to extend our gratitude to our generous parishioners in advance for your past and present support with providing so many hundreds of people/families with a joyful Christmas experience throughout the years.

FATHER AUSTIN VISITS KINDERGARTEN STUDENTS

Kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Baker, arranged for Father Austin to visit her kindergarten students since they have been learning about church leaders. He talked to them about being a priest and about himself. With Mrs. Baker's help students had prepared some questions ahead of time to ask Father Austin such as (a) Do you ask the church to become a priest?, (b) What does a priest do?, (c) How do you ring the bell?, (d) What is your favorite color?, and (e) Tell us about your family. Father Austin also brought some chrisms for them to smell since they learned about baptism a few weeks prior to his visit.

Thank you, Father Austin.

32ND ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CLASSIC

Do not forget to place your orders for poticas and kieffels! We will make kieffels beginning at 8:00 A.M. on Tuesday December 3, and poticas on December 5 and 6 at 8:00 A.M. The Christmas Classic is on December 7 and we will make butter rings early that morning. We need lots of helpers—including gentlemen.

Newcomers are very welcome and we will gladly train you! If you are able to help for any period of time, please stop by the HS Cafeteria between 8:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. For more information call Molly Orsini at 419.512.2931.

OPPORTUNITY FOR GIVING

During the holidays we are often asked to donate to a worthy cause and we sometimes wonder how we can satisfy all of the organizations which are asking for our help. The solution is "We can't". Pray about it and choose which cause you will adopt this year. Discuss this as a family and make sure the children are involved.

Here at St. Peter's we have several opportunities for giving.

We will have our annual Thanksgiving Mass on Thursday, November 28 at 9:00 A.M. and we will collect non-perishable canned and boxed food items along with personal care items for the H.O.P.E. pantry at Catholic Charities.

The Giving Tree will be located in front of Mary's altar starting the weekend after Thanksgiving/The First Sunday Of Advent. All gifts will need to be returned the next two weekends: December 7, 8, 14, & 15 so that items can be delivered in time for Christmas. This collection benefits Catholic Charities and the Salvation Army to assist community family's needs as well as St. Peter's school families, parishioners and those whom St. Vincent de Paul has served. There is also an angel ornament for children of prisoners.

This year we will be collecting NEW socks in a program called "SOCKS FOR SENIORS" which is sponsored by the Area Agency on Aging for residents of our local nursing homes. There will be collection boxes in the main vestibule under the two tables that are there. The collection will run from November 25 through December 31, 2019.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Help is needed on Saturday, November 30 at 10:00 A.M. to swap out the 2019 hymnals in church for the new ones for the First Sunday of Advent. Help from everyone of all ages is needed. Just come to church using the ramp side door. Many hands make light work.

175TH ANNIVERSARY NOTES

When Father Tony Borgia was transferred to Toledo St. Michael's and St. John's Point Place in the summer of 2011, he was succeeded by Father Gregory R. Hite, who became the thirteenth Pastor of St. Peter's. Father Hite was renewed for a second term as Pastor in 2017.

The celebration of the 175th Anniversary takes place this weekend, the 23rd and 24th of November. For nearly all of our 175 years St. Peter's Parish has occupied the corner of West First and South Mulberry. We have been light and presence and service to our community for that entire time. God has blessed our Parish over the years and we are grateful for the community we have become.

Please try to take advantage of the events we have scheduled. There will be historical exhibits on display in the High School on the ground floor on Saturday afternoon and again, after the 5:00 Mass, on Saturday evening. We will also be celebrating with a Birthday Party for the Parish on Saturday evening in the School Cafeteria. Please join us for those events.

On Sunday, November 24, Bishop Daniel Thomas will preside over our anniversary Mass at 11:30 a.m. He will be joined by former associate pastors and pastors in the celebration. After the solemn Mass, there will be a tour of the Church, followed at 2:00 p.m. by our Banquet at the Mid-Ohio Educational Service Center at 890 West Fourth Street.. A limited number of tickets are still available. They will be $20 at the door. Don't miss it!

COCOA LADIES

The rule for fasting to receive Holy Communion for Catholics many years ago was more than the one-hour fasting now in place. In the early 1900's, since elementary school students attended Mass every morning during the school week, they could not eat breakfast before arriving to school. A group of women parishioners—the St. Rita's Sodality who were later called the "cocoa ladies" - served hot cocoa after Mass to the children in the church basement. Children would bring their breakfast and top it off with the delicious hot drink. This continued for many, many years.

WERE YOU A COCOA LADY WHO SERVED HOT COCOA TO OUR STUDENTS HERE? Or a relative of a "cocoa lady"? OR WERE YOU A STUDENT WHO REMEMBERS BEING SERVED HOT CHOCOLATE BY A COCOA LADY AFTER MASS? If so, we would enjoy talking with you about that. At your earliest convenience, please contact Kathy Morris at 419.524.2572, x 2110 or at morris.kathy@myspartans.org. Thank You!

St. Peter's Elementary is looking for a volunteer crossing guard Monday—Friday 7:15—8:00 A.M. If interested, please email Ashley Rastorfer at rastorfer.ashley@myspartans.org.

OF KINGS AND KINGHIP

Americans have an uncomfortable relationship with kings. The American Revolution was fought for independence from King George, after all. Nonetheless, today every Catholic church around the world celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today's feast invites us to look beyond our national loyalties and rejoice in our primary identity. We are children of God in Jesus, Christ the King. Our readings help us consider what it's like to belong to God's kingdom. The book of Samuel captures the deep longing of the Israelites for a king to shepherd them. Saint Paul reminds the Colossians that we belong to the kingdom of Christ, whose power he praises in a beautiful hymn. Finally, Luke's Gospel calls to mind the kind of king Jesus chooses to be—a suffering servant, a man for others. By sacrificing his life for us, Jesus throws open the gates of Paradise.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today's solemnity, the final feast of the Church year, is a youngster as feasts go. In 1925, Pope Pius XI was distressed by global political upheaval and the de-Christianizing of society. That year was a Holy Year, keyed to the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, when the words and of his kingdom there will be no end were added to the Creed. The Pope explained that although most feasts had developed over many centuries, the Church sometimes provided a new feast to address new needs. He pointed to the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, showing Christ's love and compassion in a time when many people embraced a cold and gloomy spirituality. Originally on the last Sunday of October, in the late 1960s the solemnity of Christ the King was moved to the last Sunday of the year.

Fresh from baptisms waters, we are anointed with chrism as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king. This feast is a key to our identity. On this feast, we recognize Christ as a king who breaks the usual mold of kingship, and who shapes his kingdom with our hands, our words, our deeds of love and service.
