PLEASE REMEMBER TO SUPPORT THE MINISTRIES OF ST. PETER'S PARISH

Jn 20:1-9 - "He saw and believed. For they did not yet understand."

St. Peter's Parishioners and Friends,

AMEN! AAALLLLELLLUIIIIIIIIAA YAA'LLL!!!
HHHAAAPPPYYY EASTER! HE IS RISEN! YES! THANK YOU JESUS!
PRAISE THE LORD! PRAISE HIM! THANK YOU JESUS!
YOU'RE THE BEST JESUS! WHAT...A...GIFT HUH? YES!

What an amazingly awesome first year of the priesthood it has been, to say the least! Covid or no Covid, not even the devil himself, nope nothing, could have taken away the absolute joy in my heart, the humble joy of being a priest of Jesus Christ! I must say, out of all the many abundant blessings from the past year, the highlight, par excellence, bar none, zee icing on the cake as they like to say, has been walking with my brothers and sisters in Christ, Beverly Strauser, David Coleman, Mitchell Kirkbride, Jordan Tackett and Sharon Frijouf, these past weeks on their faith journey of becoming Catholic. Yes! Thank you Jesus! Wow! Not just walking, but even better, the pleasure of personally meeting with Jordan (recently engaged BTW to his fiance Emily) and Mitch every Monday in the Kirkbride home! It was wonderful! In using the New Catholic Answer Bible we discussed so many questions - Why Do Catholics Pray to Saints and Angels? Why Do Catholics Pray For the Dead? Why Does the Church Baptize Infants? Why Do Catholics Confess to a Priest? Why Does God Allow Evil? Why Are Catholics Required to Attend Mass? Is Purgatory in the Bible? If you're Catholic, and you may not know the answers to some of the questions, I'd recommend asking our new members of the Church! Yes! However, if you're not Catholic, and still seek answers, please please feel free to call me! Who knows, maybe my next move is to meet with you in your home!...Praise!

In today's gospel, we're told how two disciples, Peter and the beloved disciple, arrive at the empty tomb and upon entering "believed" in the resurrection, even though they "did not yet understand." Amazing! How can they believe in something without really truly understanding it?

What's the difference between "believing" and "understanding"? To believe is to hold true something for which we don't have any proof. For example, we can believe that tomorrow it will rain, even if we don't know for sure. On the other hand, we can understand (i.e know for sure/have proof) that today it is sunny. So, the disciples "believe" (even without proof) that Jesus was raised from the tomb, without yet truly understanding (knowing for sure). The key word here is "yet." Up until the time in the tomb, they hadn't yet understood, but Jesus promises they will! The good news—that means he promises us as well! Yes! Thank you Jesus!

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK OF OUR PARISH

Names will only be listed for 4 weeks. If you wish to have additional time, contact the Parish Center at 419.524.2572.

Today, Jesus is telling us it's ok if we don't have an answer to any of the above New Catholic Answer Bible questions. Right now, all he is asking us to do today is "believe." He promises that the "understanding" will come! If not tomorrow, the next day. Or the next, or the one after that. The one thing Jesus relies on is us. See, it takes some effort on our part. Just as the two disciples had to first go "into the tomb" to believe, so too we need to step outside, in order to understand that it's sunny! It's OK if you're not quite ready to step outside, because this Priest is willing to come to your house and step in.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Kevin

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

Our brothers at ManCI and RiCI extend by mail their Easter greetings to our parish. Fortunately for ManCI, Father Kevin and Deacon John are permitted to return, so our brothers there will have the blessing of celebrating Mass again. Although vaccinations are in progress at RiCI, it will still be quite some time before our prison ministry team can resume our active schedule there as in the past. Please keep in prayer all who are incarcerated, their families, their victims and their loved ones, and all involved in the justice system.

ACA—THANK YOU!

UPDATE ON THE ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL – 2021

We have reached 61% of our goal of $55,036 for this year's Annual Catholic Appeal! We are really "moving forward," due to your generous response, having pledged $33,590 from our parish households.

Please remember that ALL gifts count; ALL sacrificial offerings are accepted in the Lord's sight! We all have much to be grateful for. Please be generous. So many of our diocesan ministries depend on St. Peter's "doing their part." And, for the first time in a long time, we have a seminarian in theology school that depends on your spiritual and financial support.

Please pray for our priests and deacons, that the Lord will provide for our parish service in years to come.

Father Hite, Pastor

STAINED GLASS ART

Students in fifth and sixth grade art have been learning about stained glass windows, and how they have been used for centuries to teach the Bible to the faithful. Students made their own "stained glass" projects using translucent paper and markers. These are on display in the school stairwell windows.

After Easter Break, students will learn about the details and symbolism in our own stained glass art.
