FROM THE PASTOR

Now that the Christmas decorations are put away and we return to the normal routine of life, I have a challenge for you. It's part of the human spirit to appreciate at least an occasional challenge. For the cautious or practical person, the challenge needs to be reasonable.

Just the opposite is the case for thrill-seekers and daring persons. They are interested only in challenges that push them to their limit.

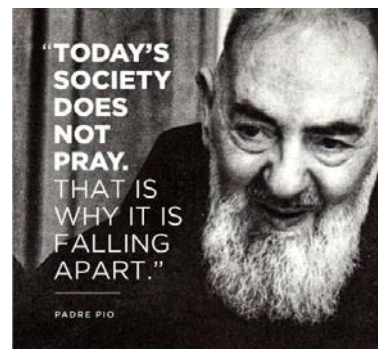

The challenge I make to you is to pray at least 30 minutes every day. My experience at other parishes indicates that this challenge is needed and appreciated. Older parishioners who were retired and blest with free time thanked me for the challenge. They shared with me how they needed to be reminded about the necessity to pray often each day. Younger people also shared with me how their life had changed for the better over time. They were more peaceful and felt closer to God.

Parents also shared with me how they began praying with their kids before they went to bed and then again in the morning (quickly!) before going to school. That's daring but yet practical! Praying before we eat, especially when in public, is also daring and practical. Jesus instructed us to pray always. A mother of several children, in seeking to accomplish this command of Jesus, prays the rosary while taking her daily run. God bless her and all who commit themselves to daily prayer!

If we think about it, we have more time each day to pray than we realize. For example, consider placing a crucifix next to the mirror above your sink to inspire you to pray while brushing your teeth and washing your hands. Short times of prayer like this can be powerful. As soon as you wake in the morning, begin praying to God before music, news, or entertainment. The more we pray from the heart, the more we experience God's joy.

One of the most powerful saints of recent times is St. Padre Pio. His influence on people and world events was amazing. He was a Franciscan priest living in a remote monastery in Italy. The miracles God worked through him were frequent, and sometimes even spectacular. Bishops, cardinals, and popes sought the spiritual power of this holy man. He was often asked what the secret was to his success. His response was prayer and trust in God. St. Padre Pio never stopped praying. I'm hoping you will accept and spread the challenge – pray at least 30 minutes each day.

Gratefully,
Fr. Miller

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

We count our blessings in this new year as we continue to build our communities at ManCI and RiCI, despite periodic delays due to quarantines of units as necessary.

Our RiCI brothers had the opportunity to gather for Eucharist at all four feasts and solemnities over the holidays: Mass to celebrate Christmas and the Epiphany and Communion Service to celebrate Feast of the Holy Family and Mary, Mother of God. We are not aware of any other institution that was able to provide that level of service. We give thanks to God for our many blessings.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK—A PRAYER FOR LIFE

Father and maker of all,
you adorn all creation

Awaken in every heart
reverence for the work of your hands,
and renew among your people
a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life.

Grant this through our Lord
Jesus Christ, your Son,
