FROM THE PASTOR

Editor's Note: This column was repeated intentionally due to technical issues.*

If there is anything that people would universally agree upon today, it's that the world is continually changing. There is change at every level of society and within every aspect of creation. We experience it often, and sometimes we even like what change brings. As hard as we might try, we cannot avoid change. Understanding this is one of the difficult lessons of life.

One of the changes the western world has been experiencing for decades is a decline in the number of people choosing to be Christian. Catholicism has experienced this, but not to the same extent as other Christian denominations. The decline in our numbers has been felt in many ways. There are fewer people at Mass on Sunday mornings, fewer children in our schools, and fewer priests.

The fewer number of priests has required the Priests Personnel Board and Bishop Thomas to be more creative in assigning priests to parishes. First, parishes in Toledo that have become smaller in recent years will soon be twinned just as all the other parishes in our deanery are twinned. Secondly, they are looking to give newly ordained priests more time as "vicar" priests before being assigned as pastors. However, this will require a decrease in the number of priests serving as pastors throughout our Diocese.

Some very recent changes in the number of available priests in our Diocese have accelerated the timeline of when these proposed changes need to occur. As a result, there is a "strong possibility" that the three Catholic parishes here in the Mansfield area will collectively be assigned three priests with one of them being the pastor of all three parishes. At this point it seems that Bishop Thomas would appoint me as pastor of the three parishes. Fr. Matt Frisbee has demonstrated strong spiritual and pastoral leadership at St. Mary and Resurrection parishes. As a result, he would be reassigned to other parishes in our diocese this summer and replaced by a newly ordained or foreign priest.

All indications are that if this change doesn't happen this summer, it will eventually. It's important to remember that each parish would function and operate as they do now, except that one team of priests would serve all three parishes. Such an arrangement would provide opportunities and challenges for both priests and parishioners. The person most affected by this would be me, the pastor. All of my life experiences would be needed to make a tri-parish arrangement functional and effective. I'm expecting the Diocese will make their decision about this within the next 4-6 weeks.

Please include this potential change as part of your 30 minutes of daily prayer. Pray that those having the burden of making these decisions will seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Pray also for those who will struggle with these potential changes. In your prayer, be sure to thank God for the many, many blessings we have all received from Him. Taking the time to thank God and being grateful can have a bigger positive effect on your life than you may realize.

Jesus, I trust in You!

CHILDREN’S LENTEN RETREAT

We hope that your child can join us for our Children’s Lenten Retreat on Saturday, March 5, from 11 a.m. – 6 p.m. The retreat is open for all who are in preschool through fourth grade. The retreat will include learning more about the Three Pillars of Lent which are prayer, fasting and almsgiving, and how we can live those out more fully during Lent. We are also going to take a walk through Holy Week with Jesus and those who lived the experience with him to understand Christ’s sacrifice for us. We will end by attending Mass with our fellow parishioners at 5 p.m.

In addition, the children will receive a light symbolic Lenten Lunch, dinner, and a snack. We will have crafts, games, prayer and interactive activities so that we can make the Lenten Season come alive for our youngest disciples!

The cost is $10 per child. At Saint Peter we are following all recommended health and safety precautions, so those who participate will need to provide their own water bottle and wear a mask. We will practice social distancing and sanitizing throughout the retreat.

If you are interested in registering your child for our retreat, please contact Elizabeth Wurm at wurm.elizabeth@myspartans.org or by calling the parish office at 419-524-2572 x 2114. A registration form will be sent to you! We hope your child can join us!

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THEOPHANIES

Today's readings recount three theophanies, or particular manifestations of God's presence. The prophet Isaiah is caught up in a dramatic scene of heavenly worship, with a royal throne, burning embers, and seraphim singing, "Holy, holy, holy." Isaiah is overwhelmed. In the responsorial psalm, the assembly adds its own worship to that of the seraphim: "In the sight of the angels, I will sing your praises, Lord" (Psalm 138:1).

Paul reminds the Corinthians of his own experience of a post-Resurrection appearance of the Lord, making him an apostle, but one "born abnormally" (1 Corinthians 15:8), since he had no acquaintance with the earthly Jesus. The first of those who did know the earthly Jesus were surprised by fishing advice from the teacher who had commandeered Simon's boat, resulting in an extraordinary catch. Although less colorful than those of Isaiah or Paul, this theophany was just as overwhelming.

Letters from Heaven

Start with the letter in the shaded square. Draw a path from letter to letter to complete the Biblical statement. Move one square at a time, up, down, right, left and diagonally until all letters are used once. Ignore any black squares.

After Simon Peter saw the great number of fish that were caught, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, ..."
