Starting July 1, we will be listing all Mass Times for the three parishes in the Mansfield Catholic Community. The legend below will denote where Mass will be celebrated.

M—St. Mary P— St. Peter R — Resurrection

FROM THE PASTOR

As you likely already know, on July 1, I will be taking on the role of pastor at St. Mary and Resurrection in addition to St. Peter's. With the addition of Fr. Kishore, we will still have three priests serving the Mansfield and Lexington Catholic faithful.

As you will see to the left, the Mass schedules for all three parishes are included in our bulletin. The location for each Mass will be designated with a single letter – M for St. Mary, P for St. Peter, and R for Resurrection.

There are no plans to change weekend Mass times. Each priest will be responsible for saying three Masses each weekend. If one priest were on vacation or fell ill, we would still have two priests available to say Mass at each parish.

At St. Peter, there will be no changes to the weekday Mass schedule. However, there are changes to St. Mary and Resurrection weekday Masses. The schedule is below:

Monday:

8:00 am – Resurrection

5:30 pm – St. Peter

Tuesday:

7:00 am – St. Peter

5:30 pm – St. Mary

Wednesday:

7:00 am – St. Peter

(School Masses: 8:25 Elementary / 9:30 am High School / 10:00 am – St. Mary)

Thursday:

7:00 am – St. Peter

5:30 pm – Resurrection

Friday:

7:00 am – St. Mary

5:30 pm – St. Peter

I hope the benefit of publishing the full schedule will encourage you to attend Mass at St. Mary or Resurrection if it is more convenient for you.

Now that the schedule has been finalized, you can call the parish office and schedule Mass intentions for the rest of the year.

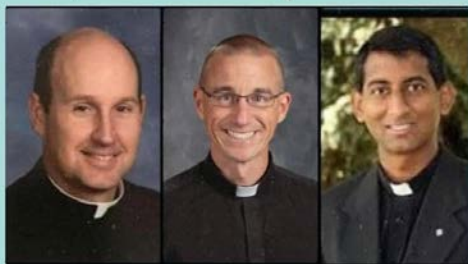

We still have some work to do regarding secular holidays, Holy Days of Obligation, and Masses at area nursing homes. My goal is to have those schedules finalized in the coming weeks.

This fall, we will further study the weekend Mass schedules to see if any adjustments need to be made. This process will include input from all three parishes.

Please keep me in your prayers as I take on these new responsibilities as pastor, and pray that God provides us with a clear vision as we move forward as three individual parishes, but one Catholic community of faith.

Prayerfully,
Fr. Miller

Our brothers at Richland Correctional are preparing for our upcoming Retreat (Adoration the evening of Friday, August 5, and the Retreat all day Saturday, August 6.) The schedule is falling into place, the music is being chosen, the brothers who will be speaking are getting ready....

The only thing missing is YOU, our parishioners. There will be other ways of helping that do not involve coming inside RiCI; please watch this bulletin space for details. However, for those who would like to see our RiCI prison ministry program "in action," please consider attending Friday evening, Saturday during the day, OR both. Contact Lynne at lukach.lynn@myspartans.org for more information. Jesus tells us in Matthew 25: I was in prison and you visited me. Please accept this invitation to come and see Jesus in the face of our RiCI brothers.

Please prayerfully consider this role; you will be glad you did! If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact the parish office by phone or email! We hope that God is calling you to this amazing ministry!

DISCIPLESHIP'S COSTS

In today's first reading, God tells the prophet Elijah to prepare Elisha to succeed him. Succeeding Elijah will be no easy task; he has spent his life facing threats from the kings he has confronted about their infidelity to the God of Israel. The psalm illustrates the emotional and spiritual distress that the prophets' steadfast faithfulness to God brought them. Paul's description of the Christian's freedom from the law as opposed to "the desire of the flesh" puts this struggle at the very heart of Christian identity. The reading from Luke's Gospel recounts Jesus' decision to journey toward Jerusalem, where he knows he will meet his earthly fate. Following Jesus—like succeeding Elijah as prophet—will now become more difficult. Unlike his calls to the first disciples, Jesus encounters those who are not ready or are not strong enough to journey with him.

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!
